

Brooks Consulting

Brooks Consulting LLC was co-founded in 1997 by Phil and Jan Brooks with the goal of delivering high quality, timely and cost effective services to its clients. Brooks Consulting LLC offers complex litigation support services to law firms and their clients and management consulting services to companies in transition.

Prior to establishing Brooks Consulting LLC, Phil Brooks led the Pittsburgh regional financial consulting practice of Big Six (now Big Four) accounting firms and was a partner with the Washington D.C. office of an internationally recognized economic and management consulting firm. Jan Brooks has over ten years of litigation consulting experience in the areas of patent infringement, product liability and contract disputes. In addition, she has over eight years of department/project management experience in the healthcare field.

With combined experience of almost 45 years in management or management consulting, Brooks Consulting LLC offers services without the frequency of conflicting out of assignments typical of larger organizations. Your assignment is managed directly by Phil or Jan - you do not need to go through layers of reporting relationships to get the access you deserve. International consulting firm talent delivered at reasonable rates.

We help:

- Attorneys manage discovery and their expert team in the damages portion of complex litigation cases;
- Companies and patent litigators investigate their market for possible infringers;
- Companies get through critical situations as an interim manager; and
- Companies and their counsel manage environmental challenges so that they recover the money they are entitled to or reduce their environmental expenses.
